

Fifty Russian reservists left Vancouver last night for Seattle, whence they will sail for Vladivostok, via Yokohama. They have been called home to serve with the colors. A large number of local residents of the Russian colony gave the men an enthusiastic send-off at the boat.