

Hobo Close Season

Five side-door Pullman tourists, who are apparently unaware of the fact that every month in the year is close season for hobos in Banff, were run through the justice mill Monday. One long-fellow, who looked as though he might be a poet in disguise, was handed a package of six months; the other travelers drew 30 days each. The contingent was sent down to Calgary Tuesday morning.