

ARMENIANS OFFER

The Globe (1844-1936); Nov 14, 1914; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail
pg. 10

ARMENIANS OFFER.

Brantford, Nov. 13.—(Special.)—Ahmen Amirkhanian, local leader of the Armenians, some time ago wrote to the Militia Department, offering the services of a company of Armenians, and suggesting that a regiment of Armenians be organized in Canada. Yesterday he received a reply from E. T. Jarvis, Deputy Minister of Militia, stating that at present the second division had but two battalions to provide, and, as these had been mobilized, the offer could not now be accepted, but might be later.