

Prisoner Cannot Get Out — Mr. Justice Galt delivered judgment at noon Saturday refusing the application for a writ of habeas corpus in connection with Joseph Chamryk, an Austrian held as a prisoner of war at Winnipeg. The judge held that a strong enough case had not been made out to justify him in taking the matter out of the hands of the military authorities.