

Turkish Subjects Released on Parole.
Medford, Alta., Nov. 18.—The three Turkish subjects recently held here as prisoners of war, have been released on parole, the authorities being satisfied they were genuine missionaries collecting money to aid the Christians in Turkey. They have no sympathy for the Turkish government in the present war.