

ARMENIAN CHRISTIANS NOT ALIEN ENEMIES

An order-in-council regarding the registration of aliens of enemy nationality exempts from the necessity of registering or reporting anyone who has taken the oath of allegiance and is in the Government service.

All Armenian Christians are also specially exempt. Though they may be legally citizens of Turkey they are not regarded as enemies, but rather as friends of Britain.