

Many Unemployed

The names of 1,740 unemployed have been registered at the city hall bureau to date. The firm of Gilmour and Hughson have taken several of the men for work in the woods, and other employers have signified their intention of using the bureau should they require men.