

Major de la Ronde of Petawawa received instructions this week to make arrangements for the harboring of five hundred Austrian reservists at the military camp. There was no room in Montreal for them. Considerable building, etc., will be required at the camp to accommodate the Austrians and they will be moved there as soon as the camp is ready. To watch them a guard of 125 or 150 men will be required.