

It is expected that the 500 or more prisoners who are to spend the winter at Petawawa will reach the camp this week. Men have been at work during the past week preparing for their coming and everything is now in readiness to receive them.