

FORTY MORE PRISONERS SENT TO TORONTO

A batch of forty prisoners of war, chiefly Austrian reservists, were sent down to Toronto from St. Catharines this morning. They were escorted by twelve of the military and occupied a special car on the 10 a.m. train from St. Catharines, which leaves Niagara Falls at 9.30 a.m.