

Eight Germans interned at Montreal were brought to Kingston yesterday. It has been found necessary to separate the Austrians from the Germans, owing to friction between them.