Jan Ofenitz will not join his troop of Austrian Uhlans during the war—unless he escapes. He had a toothache, he said, when asked why he had not reported for two weeks at the office of the Registrar of Alien Enemies where he was supposed to report weekly. When the Registrar, Mr. A. J. Russell Snow, K.C., came down to the office last night he decided to relieve Ofenitz of the necessity of coming to report when he had the toothache, by internment.

Fritz Nitshke, belongs to the German Landsturm, but he, too, will be relieved of the necessity of obeying the Kaiser's order to go and get shot. He was provided last night with quarters at Stanley Barracks for the period of the war.
