

More War Prisoners.

Brandon, Man., Feb. 9. — Six more prisoners of war reached here this week from Winnipeg, and have been interned at the concentration camp. They were men who had broken their parole after having registered as aliens. Close watch is kept on all who register, and if they break the rules laid down they are interned.