SOLDIERS WILL SEEK UNREGISTERED ALIENS

Aliens of all kinds invaded the registration office yesterday, as it was the final chance of recording their names without compulsion. Today squads of soldiery will visit the haunts of the enemies and any who cannot show a card of registration will be marched to Stanley Barracks.

Among those who appeared yesterday was Frederick Gallster, a German, aged fifty-seven, who had been in Toronto forty-seven years. For thirty-five years Mr. Gallster kept a jeweller's store on the corner of King and Sherbourne streets. He stated that he had voted at every election and never thought but what he was a full-fledged Canadian. He was born in Hamburg, Germany, when that city was independent of Germany.

LIBERALS AT HOME.

The fifth annual at-home of Ward One Liberal Association was held last night in the R.C.B.C. parlors. Major A. Mulholland and party of twelve, Ald. Walton, C. A. Moss and Walter Harland Smith were present. A pleasant evening was spent by a large gathering of members.

CALLED TO ST. GILES'.

At a meeting of the congregation of the St. Giles Presbyterian Church held last night a hearty and unanimous call was extended to the Rev. S. H. Pickup, who has been acting as a supply for the past year. The call will be presented to the Presbytery at their first meeting in March.
