

Some excitement was caused last week when it was known that two German prisoners who had escaped, were in the vicinity. The soldiers combed the landing pretty thoroughly, and we have since heard that the wanted men were found on the other side of the lake.