

It is "Deutschland Uber Alles" no more in Ontario schools. By an order from the Department of Education the German war song will form no part of the literature in the German reader used in the schools of Ontario. It is ordered to be expunged, and there is no doubt the Department will see that it is.