

~~NERLICH~~ TRIAL IS NEAR

Nine Cases Ready for Assizes to Open Monday.

Special Cable to The Star.

There are at present nine cases to be tried at the Spring Criminal Assize Court, which opens at the City Hall on Monday, under Chancellor Boyd. The list is: Emil Nerlich, high treason; Dr. E. Roy Tyrer, murder; Dr. Tyrer and Alex. McCorquodale, conspiracy to commit a serious offence; Harry Asher, attempted murder; McCutcheon Brothers and M. Cook, conspiracy to defraud the public; Leo Cole and Albert Cooper, attempted offence against a woman; M. Sasgen, manslaughter; Burrill Thompson, shooting with intent.

In addition to these Dr. F. G. Hughes, found guilty of conspiracy in connection with the affairs of the Union Life Insurance Company, will appear for sentence.