

DRESDEN PRISONERS LANDED.

ST. JOHN, N. B., April 19.—Three hundred German sailors, some of them former members of the Dresden's crew and others captured from German merchant marine, arrived here from Bermuda on the C. P. R. steamer St. George. The prisoners were marched under strong guard to the railroad and entrained for Amherst, where they will be interned.