

JUDGMENT FOR ALIEN INDICTABLE OFFENCE

TORONTO, Ont. April 28.—A novel suggestion that a judge might be guilty of an indictable offence if he gave judgment in favor of an alien enemy was heard at Osgoode Hall yesterday, when the Hollinger Mines moved to dismiss an action against them by the estate of Steve Samuelski, workman killed at the mines. Parents residing in Posen would be beneficiaries. judgment was reserved.