

READY FOR NERLICH APPEAL

Counsel for Crown and Defence Confer Before Trial Judge.

Counsel for Emil Nerlich, found guilty by a jury before Sir William Mulock, on a charge of having conspired to commit an "indictable offence," appeared before the trial judge in his room at Osgoode Hall to-day, to settle with J. R. Cartwright, K. C., deputy attorney general, the form of the stated case allowed by his Lordship. When the draft becomes final, it will be filed with the registrar of the Appellate Division, and argued before the Divisional Court at the sitting beginning Monday, May 10th.
