GERMAN GIVEN OFFICE BY CROSS Great Indignation in Galgary

ANTI - BRITISH

Over Appointment of Charles Pohl

CALGARY, Alberta, May 10.—There is a great dual of indignation here over the action of Attorney General Cross in recebtly appointing Charles Pohl, a well known German resident of Calgary, a commissioner for affidevits and sury, a commission or animal variety of a German plocation property the editor of a German plocation paper gradient of the party. Since the outbreak of the war he has several times been heard to speak disparagingly of British and her silles and to boset of German provess. Some time ago this got him into a fistle argument with Barney Collison, a well known local barriater, in which the Teuton came off decidedly second best. The following comment from the Calgary Herald shows how Pohl's appointment is viewed in a view of the control of the co

Editorial Opinion
"It is somewhat of an anomaly to see the provincial government giving Germans of an avowedly anti-British sermans of an avovedy and sorting type appointments under the crown, at the present time when a state of war exists.

"The last issue of the Alberta Garsette contains the announcement that Charles Wohl is appointed to be a commissioner for taking affavita. This is the same Charles Pohl, an undisaguised German, whô got a sound drubsuised German, who got a sound drubsuised German, who got a sound drubsuised German, who got a sound drubsuised German who got a sound drubsuised German who got a sound drubsuised German who got a sound grubsuised grubsuised grubsuised grubsuised grubsuised grubsuised grubsuise guisec verman, wo got a sound drubbling a short time ago from a Calgary lawyer for making insolent remarks about the British empire and King George. This is an interesting commentary on the methods adopted by the Bitton cabinet in making appointmenta under the crown in this provlices.

"Beerment Too Lax

"here is a tendency on the part of the government to be much too lax with regard to the Germans in this grovince, both naturalized, and otherwise, and in view of the revelations of the past few months of what their prothers in the fatherland are capable tt is not too much to say, that no German should be given any undue induit gence; but to see the government giving appointments under the crown to men whose delight at the success our enemy is undisguised, is triffing with the feelings of particular Canadian to a dangerous limit.
