

Fifty recruits for the B. C. Horse arrived on Tuesday from Vancouver. This brings the two local squadrons of this regiment pretty well up to full strength. As arrivals of alien prisoners to the internment camp are of frequent occurrence these days, the guard duty entailed upon the 36th of late has been rather heavy, and the recruits from the coast were very acceptable.