One of the Austrian prisoners at Petawawa detention camp died there on Friday night last. The remains were taken to Pembroke yesterday morning and the funeral took place to the Cathedral and the R. C. cemetery. Two of the unfortunate man's companions attended the funeral in charge of Col. de la Ronde, camp commander, and a few of the guards. The man died rather suddenly after a short illness.