

ANOTHER GERMAN BARON

Has Been Placed in Fort Henry For Safe-Keeping.

Baron Von Polenz, who for the past three years has been interested in Cobalt investments, and has been prominent in Montreal and Quebec society circles, was arrested by Inspector Parkinson, of the Dominion Police, on a charge of espionage, and brought to the prison for alien enemies at Fort Henry, Kingston. The Baron is an ex-captain of a German cavalry regiment, and has been under surveillance by the Dominion Police for some time.
