

DIED IN FORT HENRY.

An Austrian Prisoner Of War Passes Away.

On Saturday night, Danzsee Banskoura, an Austrian prisoner of war, incarcerated in Fort Henry, died after a few days' illness. The deceased was thirty-six years of age and was a shoemaker by trade. He was also a Roman Catholic and unmarried. Until further particulars are received the remains will be kept in charge of R. J. Reid, undertaker. It is thought that the dead Austrian will be buried in St. Mary's Cemetery.
