

More Prisoners in Armoury

The German and Austrian reservists throughout Canada are still determined to get back to Germany to join their regiments.

Last Friday the immigration authorities arrested 6 Germans and 2 Austrians on a train trying to get into the States. The men were taken to the armoury and will be held as prisoners of war.