

RELIEF FOR RUTHENIANS

Society Formed in Edmonton—Work for Unemployed on Farms

A Ruthenian relief society has been formed in Edmonton. This step was taken at a recent meeting presided over by Rev. Father Hura of the Ruthenian Greek Catholic church, at which some 800 Ruthenians were present. In the course of his remarks Father Hura said the farmers of his congregation had agreed to give work to as many of their fellow-countrymen as possible. The following officers were chosen: President, Rev. Father Hura; vice-president, H. Mickleson; secretary, M. Hooy; treasurer, J. Hasenczyk; assistant treasurer, Alex. Holaczuk; committee, W. Krupa, J. Kokora, William Melnyk, T. Cayeka, N. Andrew, T. Harczyn, Sam Holowacz, N. Czorny, K. Fedofoknez, M. Piscocki, M. Hlinski.
