

Major Ridgeway Wilson, who has been making arrangements for the interment camp at Monashee in connection with the alien prisoners who will be employed on the Edgewood road, returned to the coast on Monday. He expects to have a couple of hundred prisoners employed on this work in the course of a couple of weeks.