

AUSTRIANS AT PORT ARTHUR AND NIAGARA ATTEMPTED ESCAPE

Held up in Both Instances—
Several Arrests Made at
Port Arthur

(C. P. Special to Sault Daily Star.)

Port Arthur, Ont., July 15.—Eleven Austrians attempted to escape to the States in a gasoline launch early Wednesday morning, but were overtaken by the police in a tug. Barney Bell, a local employment agent, Frank Volkman, an employee of Bell's, and Bert Ramshaw, owner of the launch, were arrested, charged with treason in aiding the party to escape. It is said the Austrians paid $5 each to the boatman.

Nigara Falls, Ont., July 15.—An attempt by five Austrians to leave Canada was frustrated Tuesday night by militiamen at the upper steel arch bridge. The foreigners are all residents of Falls View. They were interned at the Victoria avenue armory and will be sent to Stanley Barracks, Toronto.
