"I would like to dispel the idea that we are anti-British and pro-German," declared Rev. John Keehley, of St. Paul's English Lutheran Church, at a patriotic meeting held in the church last night.

"I have heard it said several times that our loyalty could be questioned, and I wish to state emphatically that this is false. We are as loyal as any Canadian citizen in the Dominion, and it is with deep sorrow that I hear our patriotism being questioned."

Four members of the church are fighting with the Canadians in Flanders, and others are with the overseas battalions.

Mr. Henry T. Smith, editor of the Masonic Sun, also spoke.
