

Since Saturday morning 35+ more Austrians have been taken in charge by the military authorities here, making the total number now interned here 72. A number of these were picked up after reports were brought to the authorities of the secret meetings being held in a house on Superior street.