

INSURE AGAINST ENEMIES.

Clapp & Anderson, Ltd., Insurance Brokers, wrote the board offering the city indemnity for loss or damage to property from explosion or fire resulting therefrom, caused by hostile persons or alien enemies.

Charlie E. Smith, ex-ward foreman for South Capital and Central wards, wrote the board asking that he be reinstated. He was, he said, the sole support of a wife and five children, and claimed that the loss of his job was due to influence and spite. No action was taken.

The board congratulated the mayor on the excellent conclusion to which he had carried the Pretoria Avenue bridge scheme. He deserved, they thought, all the thanks for at last getting it through the hands of the government.
