

To be interned in the city, five more alien enemies arrived today from Winnipeg. Four of them had broken parole by trying to cross the border but were stopped by American immigration authorities, and the other is an undesirable who has just finished a term in the provincial jail.