

GOING TO WORK ON FARMS

To get work on farms in the southern part of the province where harvesting is general large numbers of foreigners are reporting at the police station to get permission to leave the city. Many others are coming in from other places to report on their way to work. On Monday there were eighty aliens reported, and this morning there were five came in during the first ten minutes the office was open. Some come from as far east as Fort William.