

IS NOW INTERNED

---

An Austrian who had drifted in to town a week ago last Saturday appeared before Inspector King and Magistrate Morden on Friday afternoon charged with uttering seditious language in a local hotel bar.

The charge was substantiated by three witnesses and accused was ordered to be interned at Lethbridge until after the war.