

A German named Leib was arrested at Brighton, Ont., and taken to the ~~detention camp~~ at Kingston. Leib had been in town several days, going under the name of Lee and had photographs of Ontario (bridges, which he attempted to carry into the States.