

Pro-Teuton Arrested — An Austrian street railway motorman was arrested by the military authorities yesterday and will be sent to detention camp on a charge of breaking parole. The motorman made use of a number of anti-British expressions to the disgust of his workmates on the street railway.