

The Duke of Connaught visits town

Afterwards continuing his journey to Vernon and the Coast

His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught arrived in the town on Monday night last, having made a quick decision to stay over in Banff for one day, and revisit the many beauty spots, which he and his party enjoyed so much on their last visit to the mountains.

From Banff, his Royal Highness will leave for Vernon and the coasts points, after visiting the Internment Camp at Castle.