

AIRMEN DISPLACE SUBS. IN WAR ON BRITAIN

THREE AEROPLANES ATTACK A BRITISH STEAMER—ALL THE BOMBS MISS.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

London, Nov. 5.—Germany appears to be trying a new method of attack on British merchantmen—with aeroplanes. The Cork steamer Acova, which has arrived at Manchester, tells a story, according to The Liverpool Journal of Commerce, of a thirty-five minutes' engagement with three hostile aeroplanes at 11 o'clock on the morning of October 30. One of the aeroplanes was a large battle plane, which dropped thirty-six bombs, some of which missed the steamer by not more than seven feet.

When the bombs were exhausted the battle plane fired on the Acova with a machine gun. The ship's sides and deck were struck by bullets, but all the crew escaped injury.

At a height of from 800 to 1,000 feet all the aeroplanes dropped bombs and attacked the steamer with rifles. The Acova's escape was due to zigzag manoeuvring and the fact that the aeroplanes dared not fly lower.

Kingston, Nov. 5.—At a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council a resolution was passed calling on the Dominion Government to have a census taken of Canada's alien enemies being given employment throughout the country.

The local Council endorsed the resolution of the Hamilton Council, which protested against the closing of hotel bars at 8 p.m. and not treating clubs in the same way.
