

WAR PRISONERS' WORK

Done In Canada Is Valued at $1,500,000.

(Special to the Whig.)

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—The value of Canada's alien enemies interned is estimated to date at $1,500,000. This is the estimated value of work of clearing and in which Germans and Austrians have been engaged throughout the summer. A hundred of German interns from Newfoundland have been added to the number of Canada's war prisoners recently.
