

MAJ. KINGSFORD WOUNDED

Son of Toronto Magistrate, Officer of Dragoons, is on List.

Major William Rupert Kingsford, of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, who is reported wounded in to-day's casualty list, is the second son of Magistrate Rupert E. Kingsford, of 18 St. Joseph street. Major Kingsford is one of Lieut.-Col. Nelles' staff, the Dragoons having volunteered to go to the trenches as infantry.

Maj. Kingsford is 34 years of age and has been in the Canadian permanent forces, the Dragoons, at Stanley Barracks, for nearly 15 years. The Dragoons went to England and were detained there after the first division had gone into action, but it trained as infantry and has been in the trenches for a long time.
