

SEVEN ESCAPED GERMANS HAVE BEEN RECAPTURED

FOUR NEARLY BROKE AWAY
AGAIN FROM ST. STEPHEN—ONE MAN YET AT LARGE.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

St. John, N.B., Jan. 21.—Seven of the German prisoners who escaped from Amherst Internment camp are now in custody. Four have been allowed admission to the United States and one Wagner, now regarded as the ringleader, is still at large.

Four of the men are now in jail here under double guards, having been brought from St. Stephen last night. These are Fred Schultz, August Meyer, Hans Dollmaler and Karl Wickerman. They were kept in jail at St. Stephen, but almost succeeded in escaping again. When a Sergeant visited their cell shortly before the time for the train to leave yesterday afternoon he found that they had almost succeeded in prying open a window.

LAD INSTANTLY KILLED.

Cobourg, Jan. 21.—(Special.) — At Allan's Mills, Seymour township, while Carman and Charlie Hubbell, the two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hubbell, the former thirteen and the latter eleven years of age, were alone in the house, the younger boy was examining a shotgun, which was loaded. In some way the trigger was touched and the gun discharged, shooting the older lad in the head and instantly killing him.

FAMOUS NOVELIST COMING.

London, Jan. 21.—Sir Rider Haggard, famous novelist, leaves next month on a tour of the Dominions on behalf of the Royal Colonial Institute, for the settlement of former service men on the land overseas at the conclusion of the war.

PRISON HEAD REMOVED.

Albany, Jan. 21.—John B. Riley, state Superintendent of Prisons, was removed from office to-day by Gov. Whitman, who in a lengthy opinion sustained the charges of misconduct in office preferred by himself on Jan. 8.
