

ACCUSED OF BEING ALIEN ENEMY ; HIS NAME IS McCORMACK

Superintendent of Civic Em- ployment Bureau Has A Regular Grievance

There is one civic employe who is feeling angry today.. He has a good old Irish name, and, better still, has had this name ever since he can remember.

Some misguided "nut" has written him saying that a plot is on foot to "get" all civic employes who are aliens, and "your name has been mentioned as one of them."

Superintendent McCormack, of the Civic Employment bureau, who received the letter, went red in the face and got real wrathy right away. "An alien!" he exclaimed. "If my people could only see me now--and me with an Olrish name, be gorra!"

The "nut" says he is a friend and will disclose his identity soon, but he is warned that an Irishman's shillalah is waiting for him as soon as he mentions "McCormack being alien."
