

GERMAN TAKEN ON TRAIN.

Chicago Man Arrested While En Route to Windsor.

Windsor, Feb. 29.—Frederick Schenck of Chicago, a German, was taken from a Wabash passenger train while crossing the Detroit River upon information telegraphed to the local immigration authorities from Chicago by Schenck's wife. It is alleged that previous to leaving home he had declared to his wife "that he was going to Canada, and before he came back some damage would have been done."