

NOTABLE GERMANS INTERNED.

Within the confines of the fifteen internment camps in Canada many German notables are at present being housed. Gen. Mackensen's nephew, together with two barons, many naval officers and thousands of persons without rank are detained in one or other of these camps, it is said, giving a total of somewhere around 7,000 interned.