

The Ottawa agents of the National Ben Franklin Fire Insurance Company, whose head offices are in Pittsburg, received a letter intimating that no more risks on munition plants will be taken. A number of German names are on the directorate.