

Young German Interned.

Berlin, Ont., March 18.—Heinrich Hans Hensing, aged twenty-seven years, will leave for Fort Henry internment camp under military escort. Hensing is a typical German and has been devoting his attention to discouraging young farmers from enlisting by assuring them that the Kaiser was bound to win.