

DISCOVERED ALIEN ENEMY.

Recruiters sometimes do a little useful work on the side, as is instanced by the experience of Pte. Tester of the 204th Battalion. Pte. Tester in asking for recruits, accosted a man who pronounced himself an Austrian. The Austrian, who reached the city on Friday night, declared he had come to take a position in a rubber factory. Instead of taking him to the recruiting depot, Tester took the man to the alien office, with the result that he is now interned.
