

DESERTED TO ENLIST.

By Canadian Press.

North Bay, Ont., April 19.—George Henry Toms, of the 20th Battalion, who broke detention at Stanley barracks in March, 1915, was discovered by Colonel Earichman in the ranks of the 159th. Toms was immediately put under arrest and was remanded for three days, until divisional headquarters is heard from.