

Prisoner Allowed To Leave Halifax

---

NEW YORK, May 22—Carl Gustav Semmer, a German who, since the outbreak of the war had been interned at Halifax, arrived here Saturday. Arrangements were made by Canadian and United States immigration authorities whereby he was permitted to come for treatment in the German hospital. He has a swelling on the neck which doctors at the detention camp failed to relieve.